

LITTLE IS GUILTY MAN

Arrested For Killing of Matt Crawford in Breathitt and Wife Confesses to the Facts.

JACKSON, Ky., Oct. 20.—Charles Little was arrested for the killing of Matt Crawford.

It is said that Little, in company with his wife, went to the home of Joe Combs Tuesday night at the hour of 11 p. m. and borrowed Combs' Winchester gun, and told Combs' family that he was going to Crawford's to get some whiskey, and said that if Crawford did not let him have the whiskey he would kill him. Sam Combs, who lives near the distillery and within one hundred yards of the door of the building where Crawford was killed, says that he was awakened just before the killing occurred, and that he saw the parties who did the killing and that he recognized Little as the man who committed the crime.

Little was accompanied by his wife and when Crawford refused to let him have the whiskey he flew into a rage and killed Crawford.

Crawford was found lying near the front door of his business house in his night clothes, with several bullet wounds in his body. His pistol was found lying near his body and it had been shot empty. It is believed that the person who did the killing, after Crawford had been killed, took his pistol and shot it empty and then threw it down near the body to leave the impression that it was suicide or that there had been a general fight.

Little was found at this home in Jackson early in the morning. While the facts were being developed and a warrant was sworn out, he took his wife and two children in a wagon and started to leave town. He was followed by several officers of the law, arrested and returned to town.

Little and his wife are now both in custody. He refuses to make any statements. Circumstances are so strong against him that most every one is of opinion that he did the killing and that his wife was with him, and was present at the time the deed was done.

Matt Crawford was one of the best business men in this county and was a member of one of the largest and best known families in this section of the State. Excitement over the killing is great and it is impossible at this time to predict what will develop before night.

Little Did the Killing.

LATER—It developed on the inquest before the coroner's jury that Charles Little is the right man accused of the killing of Matt Crawford, just above town Tuesday night.

Little denies it, but his wife admits being with him, and says that her husband did the killing. She says that they went there after whiskey, and that Crawford refused to let her husband have the whiskey he wanted, but gave him one drink. After that she says they became involved in a quarrel over the whiskey, and that her husband shot and killed Crawford.

Little was stripped and examined and it was found that he was shot through the thigh. Little has nothing to say. He does not attempt to say where he received the wound in his thigh.

It is believed now that Crawford fired his own pistol in an effort to save his life, and that the shot took effect in Little's thigh.

Court is in session and Judge Redwine called the grand jury into court at an early hour and instructed them and placed upon them the responsibility of putting a stop to crime in this county. He told them to delve into the facts concerning the crimes that have been committed here recently and ferret out the facts and make indictments and return them in to court against the men guilty.

In his instruction to the grand jury Judge Redwine took occasion to say to the public generally that there must be no attempt by any one to commit violence against any person charged with the crime, and he said that he would vigorously any attempt of that kind as vigorously as it was in his power to do. He urged that the law be enforced strictly and said that criminals must be brought to justice.

BURLEY SALE
IS POSTPONED

Prices Are So Unsatisfactory on the Lexington Market That Tobacco Is Withdrawn.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 20.—The Burley Tobacco Society Wednesday withdrew its 1909 pooled crops from the market when it developed that the offers of the buyers for the tobacco were from 2 to 7 cents under the grade prices fixed by the society's executive committee and lower even than the prices offered Tuesday, which were about $1 a hundred under the figure of last week.

Wednesday night Messrs. Fred Stuey of Ghent and John A. Larus of Paris, members of the executive committee, went to Cincinnati for the purpose of making arrangements for the storage of the remainder of the 1909 crop or possibly for its sale in the Queen City breaks. Friends of the Burley society, however, have little hope that the buyers will pay any higher prices for the present at least.

It was announced that the sale had been indefinitely postponed and that nothing further would be done toward disposing of the 1909 pooled crop until the executive committee had decided upon some other plan for marketing the crop. Only 73 hogshead were sold Wednesday and they constituted the rejections of a lot formerly sold to the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company. The bids on the lot were accepted.

No representative of the trust, so far as is known here, has attended any of the sales. The 1910 crop will soon be ready for the market.

WORLD SERIES WILL BE RESUMED THURSDAY.

Interest, Second Only to a Presidential Campaign Is Manifested.

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—Fears that a rainstorm, threatened by the United States Weather Bureau would prevent the first Western game between the Philadelphia American team and the Chicago Nationals Thursday were partly allayed Wednesday night. The weather bureau revised its estimate made during the day and asserts that if any rain falls it will be in the morning and not sufficient to interfere with the game.

In spite of this no hopes are held out for a continuation of the warm weather of the first two games. A decided drop in the temperature, that means discomfort and overexertion for the spectators, is assured.

With the return of the twice-defeated Nationals and the arrival of the victorious American League team Wednesday, supporters of the western men took on a new hope. The teams reached Chicago early in the afternoon on two sections of a special train traveling about ten minutes apart. They made the trip from Philadelphia in a little more than 17 hours and cheers from the crowds gathered at nearly every station indicated an interest in the base ball players second only to a presidential campaign.

STAFFORD IS
AFTER LANGLEY

Insurgent Republican Speaks Against Regular Republican at Beattyville.

BEATYVILLE, Ky., Oct. 20.—Hon. W. T. Stafford of Paintsville, Ky., a progressive Republican; W. H. May, Democrat and Commonwealth's Attorney of the Thirty-first Judicial District of Kentucky and Henry S. Wood, regular Republican of Mt. Sterling, spoke here Wednesday to a good sized crowd. Both Mr. Stafford and Mr. May spoke in the interest of Mr. Byrd and Mr. Wood in the interest of Mr. Langley.

Mr. Stafford said he was an insurgent Republican and was in full sympathy with that element of his party; that he was against Langley on account of his record in Congress and because of his broken promises to his constituents. He made a strong appeal to the Republican voters to vote for Byrd. He referred to Mr. Langley as "Promissory John," and especially to his position as a "stand-patter."

Mr. Wood was not billed to speak, but came in this morning and asked for a division of time, which was granted. His speech consisted mainly of berating Stafford and it is said he was sent here by the Republican Congressional Campaign Committee to offset the influence Mr. Stafford's defection might have with the Republican vote.

SAYS HE WILL
TRY IT AGAIN

Wellman and Companions Return to New York Pleased With Experiment.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—Walter Wellman and his five companions were landed here Wednesday afternoon by the steamship Trent, which picked them up at sea after they had abandoned their dirigible balloon America and failed in the first attempt to cross the Atlantic ocean through the air.

A bruised right hand which Wellman carried in a sling was the only physical injury that resulted from their long voyage of about 900 miles and a rescue the like of which is unknown to all history.

None of the aeronauts expressed regret for the loss of the America. They agreed that it had served its purpose and taught its lesson. All stand ready to renew the attempt as soon as Wellman and his engineers find a way to conquer the difficulties that brought their first trip to its thrilling end last Tuesday morning when 400 miles southeast of Sandy Hook.

Standing on the deck of the Trent, clad in the same suit of khaki he wore when he and his crew launched the America last Saturday at Atlantic City, Wellman made this statement:

"We thought we could not get along without the equilibrator. Now we find we could not get along with it. Our plans for the future are indefinite until we find something that will do what we thought the equilibrator would do."

The direct cause of abandoning the America was the exhaustion of the supply of gasoline, which had to be thrown out to save the ship. When the crew abandoned the balloon twenty-four hours.

STATE GRANGE TO MEET
OCTOBER 25 AND 26

Moral Uplift of the Farmer and Strict Non-Partisanship Are Features of Organization.

The date of the Kentucky State Grange meeting which is to be held in Winchester is October 25 and 26.

One of the most attractive features of the Grange is that it is strictly non-partisan and stands for the moral uplift of its members in all things.

While the Grange does not teach partisan politics, it does impress its members with the responsibility of citizenship and to do all in their power to secure purer politics and to see that the interest of the farm is fairly represented. The continued and just demands of the Grange have met with no small degree of success and in about every instance has been the only agent the farmer has had to present his claims and see they were granted to him. Scarcely a law has been passed for many years in behalf of the farmer that the Grange was not foremost to champion it and oftentimes the only one.

The impress of the Grange on its members has a great influence for good. It makes better men and better women and incites all to a higher plane of life. It teaches Divinity in all things, and a Grange is never properly opened or closed that each member does not pay tribute to his Creator.

Elder Testifies That Senator Gardner Said Corruption Fund Totalled Half Million.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—Representative in Congress Otto G. Foelker, the man who was carried from his sick bed into the State Senate chamber to cast the deciding vote for the anti-racing bills urged by Governor Hughes, took the stand as a witness Wednesday and told the Merritt joint legislative committee the details of an alleged attempt in 1908, by former State Senator Frank J. Gardner, now under arrest to buy his vote.

Gardner was called to the stand, but refused to testify. Robert Elder, First Assistant District Attorney of King's County, repeated a conversation which he says he had with Gardner in March last and which had been referred to as a "confession."

Mr. Elder did not vouch, as of his own knowledge, for the truth of what he repeated, but he gave, for what it might be worth, testimony that involved more names of men now living and names of men higher in social and business and political life, coupled with the distribution of bigger sums of money than anything yet heard in either the Alldis hearing or any of the previous sessions of the present committee of inquiry.

The narrative created a sensation. Briefly it told of a dinner at Delmonico's of prominent men friendly to the race tracks; of $500,000 subscribed to a corruption fund; of the distribution of this fund to politicians and to well known political correspondents at Albany of the New York news papers, and of the secret stand of the late Senator Patrick McCarren, who worked for the passage of the bill against his own wishes and those of his own associates.

Elder continuing his testimony said "Finally Gardner said: 'I don't mind telling you that there was a meeting at Delmonico's at which money was subscribed.' He mentioned names of several men who were there, including members of the Metropolitan Turf Association. He said: 'Among the men there that I remember was Jas. R. Keene, David Mitchell, Mr. Parsons, Harry Payne Whitney and Charles H. Hyde.'

"I asked him the total amount of this fund," the witness resumed, "and he said: 'Oh, considerable.' I told him that I had heard $300,000. He said that if I had guessed $500,000, I would have been nearer the mark. Of this sum he said Senator Grady got only $4,000 and I might imagine what the others got."

Senator McCarren, he said, was angry because he did not have the handling of the fund. McCarren was secretly in favor of the bill, he said, and wanted to be revenged because he had not been consulted.

Then came the mention of the press. Asked for the names of the men as told to him by Gardner, with the amounts Gardner said they received, the witness named Patrick Kehoe of the Press $3,000; Louis Seibold of the World, $3,000; Joseph McKentree of the Sun, $3,000; George Jandrian of the Brooklyn Citizen, $3,000; George Tyrrell of the Brooklyn Eagle $3,000.

After Mr. Elder finished his testimony George Tyrrell, secretary of Comptroller Pendegast, and, until January 1, Albany correspondent of the Brooklyn Eagle, took the stand and testified that Gardner had paid him $300 at Albany and that he had declined it.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

Mrs. John McCord.

The funeral services of Mrs. John McCord who died suddenly Tuesday night were held at the grave in the Winchester cemetery Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. Peeples and Rev. Cumming.

THE AUDITORIUM.

The best bill seen at the Auditorium in a long time was offered Wednesday night and will give one more performance tonight at 8 o'clock as Friday night brings a new bill. The opening act is John Coughlan an electrical wonder, who does various astonishing stunts with electricity which makes the audience sit up and gasp. His first is the holding of two carbons between his teeth thereby completing a circuit and causing a bright light to blaze in his open mouth. He then lights up two very attractive Indian clubs with the current passing through his body and closes by an exhibition of how criminals are electrocuted at the Auburn

N. Y. prison. His is indeed a remarkable performance and alone should crowd the theatre. The electric chair he carries is fashioned exactly like the chair in use at Auburn and the current used is of practically the same power as that used at the prison. His work is exactly at variance with all the laws of electricity and has no precedence.

Dixon and Mack, who sing some, talk some and got all of the dancers skinned that ever appeared at the Auditorium theatre was certainly a hit on the bill. The manager was compelled to ring down the curtain in order to save them from exhaustion, as the audience almost wore them out answering the encores. This act is decidedly the best dancing act on the road and deserves a packed house. These two acts in connection with two new pictures, can't be beat in any house.

ABUSES OF FRANKING

Costs the United States Government Millions of Dollars and is Rankly Abused.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—Postmaster General Hitchcock aims a blow at the franking privileges of Congressmen, so useful in political work, by the announcement of his intention to advocate the substitution of special official stamps and stamped envelopes for the various forms of franks now used to carry free of postage the vast volume of departmental and congressional mail matter.

The unrestricted manner in which the franking privilege is now being used has aid it open to serious abuses, it is said. The franking privileges costs the Postoffice Department several millions annually.

All special envelopes and stamps for free mail are to be issued on requisition to the various branches of the Federal Service requiring them, and records are to be kept of all official stamp supplies as will enable this department to maintain a proper postage account, covering the entire volume of free Government mail. As the first step in the direction of this important reform the Postmaster-General has approved a special stamp and stamped envelope to be used instead of franks in the free transmission of the official matter resulting from the business of the new postal savings system.

U. S. DEPUTIES ARE ARMED WITH WRITS

For Directors of Illinois Central and Serve Them in Suits Involving Millions.

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—Attorney Maxwell Edgar, accompanied by two Deputy Sheriffs, created ripples of excitement Wednesday at the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Illinois Central Railroad by serving subpoenas on the various Directors during every lull in the proceedings. Edgar, who held proxies for 60 shares, was enabled to get into the meeting, at which holders representing 784,866 shares of stock were present.

The subpoenas were in a suit for $10,000,000 damages, which Mr. Edgar, constituting himself an attorney for the road in the Circuit Court when he filed a praecipe in the case. The defendants to the suit are the Directors of the road, whom Mr. Edgar seeks to hold responsible for alleged financial loss through care repair "graft," general mismanagement and alleged rebating.

While the two deputies were making things interesting in the meeting half a dozen others guarded exits from the Park Row Building. Mr. Edgar fearing that some of the Directors might attempt to evade service. This precaution proved to be superfluous.

Thursday morning Jailer James Mullins, deputy policeman John Ballard and Chambers went to Paris for the purpose of getting the horse and bringing Cooper back to this city for trial. They got the horse but the jailer at Paris refused to turn the prisoner over to the authorities here and he will remain at Paris.

KINGSHIP IS
ROOSEVELT'S AIM

Declares Bryan in His Indiana Speech es When Attacking Former President's Policy.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 20.—William Jennings Bryan, speaking here Wednesday night to an audience of 10,000 people, made a vigorous attack on the new nationalism creed of Colonel Roosevelt.

Quoting from Roosevelt's explanation in the Outlook, Bryan asserted Roosevelt's speech at Osawatimie was little less than a demand for a Kingship. He declared that it has cost millions of lives to banish the policy that Roosevelt now advocates. "There is not another man in the country who would want such power," he said. Bryan said that he came here to answer Roosevelt's speech for Beveridge, but after reading it, he said he was convinced that would require only a few minutes. He said that Roosevelt ignored the tariff question, which is the paramount issue of Beveridge's campaign.

The keynote of Bryan's address was his strong appeal for the election of Kern to the Senate. He contrasted Kern's record with Beveridge's. Kern, he insisted, is the real, honest, progressive who is deserving of support.

Bryan was received with intense enthusiasm here. Former Mayor Holtzman presided over the meeting.

The experience of many cities over the census returns renders other towns indifferent about getting the returns.

A NOBLE WOMAN.

Julia Ward Howe is dead. A friend of humanity has left this earthly stage. At Brown University last year while bestowing the degree of Doctor of Letters she was hailed as "author, philanthropist, mother, friend of the slave, the prisoner and all who suffer, savior of the battle hymn of freedom."

Her life was exceptionally long and active. On her ninetieth birthday she was able to say that the deeper she drank the cup of life the sweeter it grew.

She will doubtless be, and we may say, indeed, that she should be, most generally remembered as the author of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic." That is not to imply that her numerous other writings were unworthy of remembrance. On the contrary, some of them have appreciably enriched the reading world. But that one ringing and resplendent lyric seems to stand apart, in a class of its own. Conspicuously above not only the rest of her works, but also above the great mass of writings of that time, it stands as the product of inspiration and as in turn a potent source of inspiration. Those who have heard the swing and the surge of its resounding lines sung by an army on the march or by a great multitude impassioned in their earnestness can realize something of the spiritual force which it has exerted upon millions and which it is destined still to exert upon people engaged in a great campaign for freedom.

For a longer period than the average lifetime Julia Ward Howe was engaged with more than ordinary activity and effectiveness in a variety of labors which were directed unselfishly toward the uplifting of humanity. In the last generation of a life which comprised the span of three generations her activities were lessened though not abated, while her sympathies and interests remained undiminished and the honor, affection and reverence in which she was held steadily increased. She became an American womanhood, American love of humanity and all the highest ideals of the American personality, the American home and the American commonwealth. She had long been to most persons so largely a great name and an ennobling tradition that her transition from the present to the past will be publicly less felt than merely perceived in the written record, though it will serve to place a final seal upon a career marked in an exceptional degree by both practical usefulness and spiritual beauty.

PERRYGRAPHS.

It is a poor weak creature that can see nothing but good in his own party and nothing but evil in the other party.

There is money in lying. Dr. Cook made a hundred thousand dollars lie-ing about his discovery of the North Pole.

The success of the Germans at home and abroad is because their education is on practical lines. A German knows how to do things.

The only people that make no mistakes are the dead ones.

We hear nothing but kind words for Senator Deliver. Now that he is dead, we have a suspicion, however, that some of the standpatters are not so grieved as they would make it appear.

One among the compliments that Roosevelt should be proud of is the frenzied antagonism of some newspaper editors.

Sectional lines have been obliterated
in an unexpected way. Standpat Democrats of the South on the tariff have done the work.

David Rankin, the largest practical farmer in the world, died within the past few days. He owned thirty thousand acres of good land and managed it all himself. He made his first money as a common laborer and invested it in calves that grew to maturity on the ranges. About fifty years ago he went to the extreme northwestern part of Missouri and bought land when it was very cheap.
As he made more money he bought more land. He was one of the few millionaires against whom there was never a suspicion of graft.

LINER IN QUARANTINE.

RIO JANEIRO, Oct. 20.—The statement is published in the newspapers that the steamer Araguaya, from Southampton September 30 and Lisbon October 3, is in quarantine at this port, several deaths from cholera having occurred among the emigrants abroad.

TO FLOAT BIG LOAN.

PARIS, Oct. 20.—An official note issued Wednesday evening confirms the announcement that an agreement has been reached between Turkey and France for the flotation of a $30,- 000,000 loan in Paris. The note adds that France has obtained the guarantees which she demanded from Turkey.

POPULISTS LEFT OFF BALLOT.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 20.—
The Populist party will not have any place on the official ballot in the Indiana election this year, as their petition did not have the required 500 signers. The five parties having places on the ticket this year are the Republican, Democratic, Prohibition, Socialist and Socialist Labor.

DEPUTY IS THRD VICTIM.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Oct. 20.—
Deputy Sheriff George Hale died Wednesday night, third victim of the bottle in this city last Friday, October 14, when George, alias "Red," Johnson, was shot to death by a posse.
Detective George Lentz is not expected to recover.

WHAT, SO SOON!

LISBON, Oct. 20.—There are rumors of a Cabinet crisis. The Ministers of War, Finance and Public Works, it is believed, will resign.

"LISTENERS NEVER HEAR

any good of themselves" is a saying that doesn't go in our case. We have heard so many nice things said about our lumber by experienced builders that we have become used to them.
There must be a reason for these compliments. A single trial of our lumber will reveal it to you.

We hear much more about common sense than we see.

RED WING, MINNESOTA.

(From Sun-Sentinel.)

A little over a year since, we had the pleasure of being the guest for a day of Red Wing, Minn. It is located about 60 miles down the Mississippi from St. Paul. It is a city about the size of Winchester, but in public enterprise it leaps us far in the shade.
A hospital located on one of the cliffs overlooks the river would be an honor to any city. The public library, a fine building, in addition to books had on exhibition samples of the town's industries and also of the surrounding country.

Red Wing has fine common school buildings and among them one devoted to industrial education that cost fifty thousand dollars. It also has a small farm of seven acres where practical agricultural education is taught to the children from the sixth grade up. It is known as the Red Wing School Farm and is the pride of the community.

The object of the school farm at Red Wing is not one of research but rather to bring to the children a practical demonstration of farm life, its possibilities and pleasures. In the fall, winter and early spring months regular laboratory work is given by the agricultural department.

In the spring the boys and girls are given a garden of their own, which they are to plant, cultivate and harvest. Each plot is eight by eight-teen feet in size and can be planted to such vegetables as are preferred. A great variety of products are raised.
There are tomatoes, peas, beans, cucubers, cabbage, radish, lettuce, beets, carrots and melons. All the stuff each child raises is his, subject only to being registered when it is

Young Men This Is the Age of Distinctive Clothes

Wear Those Made by Young Men's Experts

Most all clothes makers and retail stores boast of the perfect fit, splendid materials and wonderful tailoring of the clothes they make and sell.

Young men, these are mere details. There are set rules that all good makers know and observe in making a garment fit and tailoring
it right. All use materials of equal worth, woolens from the same mills. In these details the clothing that many good makers produce is equally perfect.

But when it comes to style, smartness, individuality, no two makers are equal. There are no set rules or laws for making Distinctive clothes. Few makers know how to give these qualities expression.

at stake. The State, county and municipal affairs are so well and economically managed that public funds

there will be no necessity for levying any taxes in 1911. The State is

APPEAL FOR NEGROES.

(From Sun-Sentinel.)
Winchester, Ky., Oct. 15, 1910

Dear Mr. Editor:
I wish to make a short appeal for the interest of the "negro" of this city, providing that you've space to publish this letter in the issue of your paper.

I visited the notorious and much talked of district known as Bucktown tonight and found this situation as to the looseness of the women who loaf in those parts unbearable. In fact, a disgrace to humanity. Some of them looking in "hop joints" drinking beer, some entering the saloons doors buying beer and chasing through the streets with the buckets and cans exposed, cursing and using all manner of the vilest and very meanest language.

The negro men are powerless to stop this, so I use this in effort to solicit your paper and the Anti-Saloon League to put an end to this evil and thereby clinch the entire negro vote in ousting from our midst the demon whisky at any time thereafter that it comes to a vote, then too by putting these or the class of women that visit these places or they who are given the freedom of the city under a more disciplined ban you make more and better servant and can then take your wife and daughters out of your kitchens and let them enjoy the social life you prize for.

Very respectfully,
A SUBSCRIBER.

SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Lesson IV.—Fourth Quarter, For Oct. 23, 1910.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Comprehensive Quarterly Review—Golden Text, Luke ix, 51—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

As the reviews thus far this year have not come at or near the end of the quarter, I feel led to do with this as with the last review and give the lessons and Golden Texts and then a summary of the teaching as probably the most profitable way to handle the fourteen lessons.

Third quarter:
No. 3. Peter's Confession, Matt. xvi, 13-28. G. T. Matt. xvi, 16.
No. 4. The Transfiguration, Matt. xvii, 1-8, 14-20. G. T. Matt. xvii, 5.
No. 5. Forgiveness, Matt. xviii, 21-35. G. T. Matt. vi, 14.
No. 6. On to Jerusalem, Matt. xix, 1, 2, 13-26. G. T. Matt. xix, 14.
No. 7. The Laborers, Matt. xx, 1-16. G. T. Matt. xix, 30.
No. 8. Nearing Jerusalem, Matt. xx, 17-34. G. T. Matt. xx, 28.
No. 9. Entering Jerusalem, Matt. xxi, 1-17. G. T. Matt. xxi, 9.
No. 10. Wicked Servants, Matt. xxi, 33-46. G. T. Matt. xxi, 43.
No. 11. Marriage Feast, Matt. xxii, 1-14. G. T. Matt. xxii, 14.
No. 12. Three Questions, Matt. xxii, 15-46. G. T. Matt. xxii, 21.
No. 13. Temperance, Gal. v, 15-26. G. T. Gal. v, 25.

Fourth quarter:
No. 1. Wise and Foolish, Matt. xxv, 1-13. G. T. Luke xii, 40.
No. 2. The Talents, Matt. xxv, 14-30. G. T. Matt. xxv, 21.

No. 3. Judgment of Nations, Matt. xxv, 31-46. G. T. Matt. xxv, 40.

We must keep before us in all these studies in Matthew that we are considering Jesus as the King of the Jews. As such He was born, and as such He was crucified (ii, 2; xxvii, 37). He is mentioned in chapter i, 1, as "son of David, son of Abraham," and we need to remember the unconditional promises to both, all of which shall be fulfilled in due time. There are many who see in Jesus only a Saviour by whom they may reach heaven when they have to die, but such is not the revelation of Him in the Scriptures. He is the King of kings and Lord of lords, the prince of the king of the earth, before whom all things shall fall down and whom all nations shall serve (i Tim. vi, 15; Rev. xvii, 14; xix, 16; i, 5; Ps. lxxii, 11). The kingdom, which is to include all nations, with Israel as a righteous nation at the center, was plainly and fully revealed in the Old Testament and was preached by John and Jesus and the twelve and the seventy as at hand. That the Messiah of Israel should suffer before He should reign was also plainly stated and typified in the lives of Joseph, Moses, David and others, but that a long period, an age, should intervene between the sufferings and the glory was not revealed in the Old Testament. This is the mystery kept secret since the world began, which was specially revealed to Paul (Rom. xvi, 25, 26; Eph. iii, 1-11; Col. d, 26, 27).

When Peter, by the Spirit of God, confessed Jesus as the Christ, the Son of God, then Jesus for the first time spoke of His church which He would build on that foundation truth. But Peter, not understanding the Scriptures nor the purpose of God, rebelled at the thought of Jesus' sufferings. Then our Lord taught that all disciples must be willing to suffer with Him, but that there would surely be a reward and that, though He and His followers were for a time to be content to suffer, the kingdom would surely come as shadowed forth in the great event of the transfiguration. With such a kingdom before us, made sure to us by a risen and glorified Christ, and having been made partakers of it by His great sufferings for us, by which we have the forgiveness of sins, we should walk worthy of such a kingdom, freely forgiving every one and by fasting and prayer overcoming the devil. As He steadfastly set His face toward Jerusalem, knowing all that awaited Him there, so we, His followers, must be steadfast, unmoved, always abounding in the work of the Lord (i Cor. xv, 58). We must let His love constrain us to accept any manner of service gladly, not for reward, but in real gratitude to Him, quite certain that the Judge of all the earth will always do right. We should be inspired by the assurance that as truly as all the Scriptures concerning His humiliation were literally fulfilled, even to His riding upon an ass' colt, so literally will all that is written concerning His glory be fulfilled also. Therefore we should rely upon Him to keep these temples of our bodies wholly for Himself, cleansed by His word and Spirit, that He may bear through us the fruit He desires to His glory.

All that we may have to bear for His sake from ungrateful, unreasonable and even cruel people should be accepted in the necessary pruning of the branches in order to the bearing of more and better fruit unto Him. The flesh is to be reckoned dead, and we are to live in the Spirit, walk in the Spirit and be led by the Spirit, and thus show forth His praises. Being made ready for His call either to be absent from the body or to be caught up in the body at His coming for His saints by His righteousness freely given to us, may the Spirit so fill us that our light may so shine before men that they may glorify our Father.

MISS VIRGINIA LISTEMANN.

It has been reserved for few singers to accomplish more significant artistic results in their youth than Virginia Listemann, the gifted prima donna, who, in addition to possessing a most engaging personality, has a soprano voice of splendid quality, rich in volume, brilliant in flexibility, and sings in superb fashion, free of mannerisms. Although Miss Listemann is foreign born, she has spent much of her life in America, while her musical education was largely achieved abroad.

Miss Listemann will appear at Kentucky Wesleyan College on October 27, in a joint recital with William H. Serwood, America's foremost pianist.

Woman's True Friend

Experimenting with new and untried medicines is foolish, and often dangerous. It would take a medicine more than forty years, to prove itself so universally good as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. During all that time it has been woman's favorite medicine—a restorative tonic, uplifting and invigorating the nervous and discouraged and giving them the final touch of perfect health.

Women use Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription in preference to all other advocated medicines for it contains no alcohol or habit-forming drugs—is not anything like advertised, secret, or patent medicines—does not claim to be able to do impossible things.

THE ONE REMEDY for women devised by a regularly graduated physician of vast experience in woman's ailments, and adapted to her delicate organism.

THE ONE REMEDY good enough that its makers are not afraid to print its every ingredient on its outside wrapper.

You can't afford to allow yourself to be over-persuaded into accepting any secret nostrum as a substitute for this honest square-deal non-secret medicine. Don't do it. No honest druggist will attempt to cheat you in this way. He who does should be rebuked and avoided. Doctors prescribe Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for their worst cases because they know what it contains and know its ingredients to be of the very best.

It's well now and then to gently cleanse out bowel germs that breed weakness, cause foul breath, loss of appetite, dizziness and headache. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets keep bowels sweet and clean. Recommended by druggists because of their purity, goodness, and active gentleness.

World's Dispensary Medical Association, R.V. Pierce, M. D., Pres., Buffalo, N. Y.

FROM GEO. M. JACKSON.

Piggott, Ark., Oct. 16, 1910.
Dear Sun-Sentinel:

I had hoped and planned to be with you this fall, but at this late hour I am compelled to give up the anticipated pleasure.

I had intended making a tour of my native mountains, to spread the Gospel of Socialism, and once again visit the scenes of my childhood.

On the 25th of September I passed the allotted time, then I began to realize that I was an old man.

How I would like to have spent two or three months in the mountains amongst a people like so well. I should have urged the re-election of the Hon. John W. Langley. Notwithstanding he is not of my political faith, and really now there is no issue between the Democrats and Republicans. They have merged the tariff issue, for enough Democrats voted for the Payne-Aldrich tariff and enough Republicans against it to take it out as a party issue. A district like the 10th wants in Congress a young man like Mr. Langley, with experience and ability to do things for his people, but the issue is drawing between Socialism on one hand and Capitalism on the other, which it will soon be, to me there is no political issue between the Democrats and Republicans. And the selection of the man of most experience should be the aim in selecting a congressman. Mr. Langley has been in several of the departments in Washington, knows how to do things. He is young, energetic and popular. Not only with his own party, but with all. Keep him in congress so long as he will consent to remain. His ten years in the departments and four years in Congress has qualified him for great future usefulness.

When the Eastern States find a man like Langley they keep him in Congress, as long as he will stay. Hence the power and influence that section exercises. By all means return Langley.

In my last visit to Winchester, I was struck with the fact that all of my boyhood friends and school companions were gone.

Now that Braxton Lisle is gone, I can recall but one other, Joe Croxten. I turned from the busy street, and wandered through the cemetery, and every hand there were the friends of my boyhood. Then came to me the lines of the poet:

"I have had playmates, I have had companions
In my days of childhood, in my joyful school days—
All, all are gone, the old familiar faces."

GEO. M. JACKSON.

When only sailing vessels coursed the seas, seamanship meant "get the most out of the wind."

Did you ever stop to think that a

DETROIT JEWEL
GAS RANGE

Enables the housewife "to get the most out of the gas?"

The rotating high neck valves, adjustable air mixers, drilled burners, scientific construction and arrangement of oven burners, triple walls with dead air-spaces are the features that give the housewife great opportunity to cook a lot with little gas.

Remember that the importance of this is that it is not the cost prices but the maintenance cost that determines the cheapness of a gas range.

ASSASSIN OF EMPRESS HANGS HIMSELF IN CELL.

GENEVA, Oct. 20.—Luigi Luccheni who assassinated the Empress of Austria in 1898, committed suicide Wednesday evening in his cell in the prison known as L'Eveche.

Two days ago Luccheni went violently insane and after smashing everything in his cell, was put in a straightjacket. When his violence passed he was given cell liberty. This afternoon guards heard him singing for several hours, but at night fall he became suddenly silent. Later the guards entered his cell and found Luccheni hanging to the window bars by his waist belt, which he had twisted around his neck.

HOPES FOR SUCCESS IN NEW YORK STATE

President Taft Hears Report From Various Republican Leaders in the Empire State.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—President Taft brought his New York visit to a close Wednesday night and is due back at the White House in Washington early Thursday morning. His last day in this city was given over to political conferences, the situations in New York State and Ohio sharing almost equally in the interest displayed by the President as to present-day conditions and election-day prospects.

To Lloyd C. Griscom, of the New York county Republican committee, President Taft expressed anew the hope that Henry L. Stimson, the Republican nominee for Governor in this State, would be successful. Mr. Taft declared he was sure Mr. Stimson would be elected if the people could be made to realize the opportunity to secure such an excellent Governor as Mr. Stimson's candidacy offers. Mr. Griscom told the President that Republican prospects in New York are brightening daily. Mr. Taft said he hoped this optimistic view of the situation was the correct one.

Some of the leaders who have seen the President have told him that conditions were far from reassuring. The reports from Ohio brought to the President Wednesday by former Governor Myron T. Herrick, of Cleveland, and Jacob G. Schmidlapp, of Cincinnati, were not enthusiastic.

SENATOR ELKINS FAILS TO RALLY FROM ILLNESS

Friends of West Virginian Much Concerned Over His Condition—Suffers From Nervous Disease.

ELKINS, W. Va., Oct. 20.—Friends of Senator Stephen B. Elkins are much concerned over his failure to rally from the illness which has held him at home during the past summer. It is reported that he is suffering from a nervous disease which is said to be nearing a critical stage.

Senator Elkins is permitted by the family physician, Dr. W. C. Golden, to drive out, but he has given strict orders that none but near relatives be allowed to visit him. Mrs. Elkins, Katherine and Blaine Elkins are at home. Miss Elkins has declined all invitations since her return from Europe.

HOUSE WILL BE VERY CLOSE

Both Republican and Democratic Congressional Leaders Doing Some Tall Figuring.

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—Officials in the Chicago headquarters of the Republican and of the Democratic congressional committee, respectively, are daily receiving so many different kinds of reports from the various districts that their views of the outcome of the November election change daily. Some days ago certain Republican committee leaders who dropped into Chicago announced that the Republicans would continue to hold in the House of Representatives a majority of about thirty. They now control with a majority of nearly fifty districts. Wednesday several of these same politicians had a different view.

"Will the House remain Republican?" they were asked.

"One of two things will happen," was the reply. "Either Congressmen elected as Republicans will be in a majority of about six or the Democrats will have a similar majority."

This shifting view is proof that the reports from the districts where the Democrats expect to make gains have not carried joyous tidings during the last few weeks. The Tenth Kentucky is an instance. Last month, Representative John W. Langley's report to the Chicago headquarters of the Republican committee was that he had an easy race. Of late the impression here seems to be that Langley is in a tight place and if he emerges from it with his title still on the Republican committee will be delightfully surprised.
